War Party in Russia Making

Telegrams From Linevitch Excite People—Plenipotentiaries Visit President—Witte Sails.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 27.—As a clearer idea is gained of Japan's peace terms, the general character of which was outlined in the Associated Press dispatches last night, the skepticism with which Washington received the European reports that Japan would demand the neutralization of Vladivostok is lessened.

It is now learned that not only is this likely to constitute one of Japan's demands, but it will be accompanied by a startling counter proposal. In fact, according to a seemingly well informed source, Japan will propose in return for the neutralization of this last Russian port on the Pacific not to fortify Port Arthur.

Sensational Proposal.

Should this information prove correct it will entirely change the view which has prevailed in official circles that the question of Vladivostok neutralization could not reasonably be made a part of Japan's peace price. It is pointed out that while the war has demonstrated that Port Arthur was a military blunder, nevertheless this great fortification constitutes a tremendous political influence in the Far Eastern question, and its abandonment as a stronghold is a concession of such magnitude that it is not felt Russia can refuse to meet it. On the other hand, Japan's sacrifice would not be as great as seems at first glance, because her fortification of the Straits of Korea would offset the loss of Port Arthur as a strategic point. It is believed here that the question of Vladivostok will prove to be one of the most difficult of the conference will face, as Russia has not concealed her disinclination to permit it to enter into the negotiations.

Komura's Conditions.

In this connection an interesting story is current in diplomatic circles regarding the selection of Baron Komura as Japan's chief envoy. According to this story, Japan had hardly less trouble than did Russia in finding an official willing to undertake this delicate mission. Baron Komura was the aliphatic that before the conference assembled the following things should be done:

First—That the flotation of a new loan, in order that Japan should be prepared to continue the war in the event the effort for peace failed.

Second—The occupation of the Island of Sakhalin.

Third—An advance against Vladivostok.

Fourth—That Oyama should strike a decisive blow at the Russian army in Manchuria.

The fact that the first three stipulations have been fulfilled, while advices from the front indicate the imminence of a general engagement, would indicate that the story is well founded.

Witte Sails.

CHERBOURG, July 27.—The North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm Der Grosse, with M. Witte and his party on board, sailed for New York, from here to-day at 1.30 P. M. M. Witte's family accompanied him on board the steamer, where he was greeted by Captain Cuppers, and received his mail and several telegrams. After affectionately taking leave of his family, M. Witte said, smiling: "I hope to return soon."

The fog having somewhat cleared away, the steamer sailed. M. Witte soon af-

Discussed Conference.
OYSTER BAY, July 27.—President Roosevelt entertained at luncheon today Baron Jutaro Komura, minister of foreign affairs, and Kogoro Takahira, minister to the United States, the Japanese envoys to the Washington peace conference, refused to hold a long interview with them, at which all phases of the approaching negotiations were considered. Neither the President nor his Japanese visitors cared to discuss for publication the nature of their conference, except in the most general terms.

THIRD MONROE ROTTEN TO CORE

Grand Jurors Satisfied
There Was Wrong
Doing There.

MORE BALLOTS THAN WERE CAST

Number in Box Exceeded Names on Poll Books—Talk of New Primary and Resignations From Electoral Board.

Will Hold Meeting To-day.

It is not overstating the proposition to say that no matter of public concern is being more widely discussed by the citizens of Richmond than that of the investigation into the methods of the recent primary election in this city, and while the grand jury is being heartily commended for its work, there are those who believe that there should be a new election, and all the proceedings but lately investigated entirely wiped out.

There are reasons for believing, however, that the verdict of the primary will stand, but there is no sort of question that the public confidence has been greatly shaken in the fairness of local elections, and that most citizens desire a new primary.

Judge Witt and the grand jury are being commended on all sides for their faithful work, and Commonwealth's Attorney Richardson gives every assurance that he will fight to see that any evils in the matter are punished to the fullest extent of the law.

The grand jury did not investigate the details of any precinct save the Third Monroe, but it is known that many, if not all, of the members had misgivings as to what went on in others.

Rotten to the Core.

"We probed the Third Monroe situation to the bottom," said a prominent member of the jury last night, "and we found it rotten to the very core. We discovered upon examining the ballots that there were 202 in the box, when only 201 citizens had voted."

"Again, we found thirty-seven ballots at this precinct marked so identically as to clearly indicate to the most unwary mind that one hand had done it all. There were two men in the jury who may properly be considered experts in this line. They took these ballots, and in going over them quickly detected and promptly threw out those about which there was striking similarity in the matter of marking."

"The making away of Culberson and Syrle," the grand juror continued, "is another bad feature of the matter, and"

1 KILLED, 2 INJURED IN BIG FEUD BATTLE

Bloody Fight in Kentucky Mountains Between Warring Factions.

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, ILL., July 27.—A special to the Daily News from Owensville, Ky., says:

In a desperate encounter between the Mullins and Fleming factions of feudists, Sol Mullins, leader of the Mullins faction, has been killed; William Mullins, wounded, and Jeff Fleming, fatally hurt.
The battle took place on Boone Fork, in a lonely mountain section near the border of Letcher and Pike counties. The Flemings by Sol Fleming, F. V. shot were fired. Sheriff Thacker, of Mercer county, went to the scene with a posse and arrested three of the Mullins faction, but Fleming refused to submit to arrest, and fled with his men to the mountains.
A battle is feared if his capture is attempted.

Report Referred.

A joint meeting of the Committees on Finance and Electricity was held last night and the report of the Water Committee, heretofore printed, favorable to the proposed new subcommittee from the two bodies. The session was brief, and this was the only matter considered.

ANNEXATION IS NOW ASSURED

Vote in Council Demonstrates Increased Strength.

MAYOR'S VETO IS TO BE SUSTAINED

Compromise Measure, Mapped Out By Ordinance Committee, With Some Modifications, Will Be Adopted at August Meeting—Mr. Bot-tom's Position.

The Common Council held a brief special session last night, and the only two propositions considered related to the matters of the new high school building and annexation.

The former subject was disposed of in a moment, the whole matter of the appropriation of $50,000 for the site having been laid on the table according to constitutional provisions on the subject. It will be considered later and unanimously adopted, according to present indications.
The annexation matter came up on motion of Mr. Davis Bottom, chairman of the Ordinance Committee, to suspend the rules in order to introduce the compromise report adopted by his committee on Wednesday night.

The motion failed by a vote of 13 to 12, it resulting twenty-four affirmative votes to suspend the rules. The recorded vote on the motion of Chairman Bottom was as follows:

Ayes—Messrs. Bottom, Cannon, Donlevy, Ferguson, Hobson, Huber, Lea, Lynch, Masurier, McCaw, Miner, Pollard, Pollock, Richardson, Umlauf, Well, Wil-lams and Woodburn—18.
Noes—Messrs. Atkinson, Watkins, Curtis, Dickerson, Garber, Gates, Griggs, Mills, Morton, Spence, West and Wilshire—12.

Move Fell Through.

It had been confidently expected all during the day that the report of the committee, with some slight modifications, would be adopted. Indeed, the men who had all along fought each other viciously were thought to have reached an agreement insuring the passage of the committee's report, with some modifications. For some reason, however, the plan fell through, and Mr.
Mills did not lead his forces in favor of the compromise.

The action of Chairman Bottom, as outlined in yesterday's Times-Dispatch, was the subject of the most favorable comment last night, he having "lead the mark" and made a bold stand for the report of his committee. There is no more high-minded or honorable man connecting with the city government in any capacity than Mr. Bottom, and all his colleagues and acquaintances are commending on the fact that after three months' debate the committee has practically adopted the plan first offered by Mr. Bottom. It is understood that the committee never favored the Mills line as an original proposition, but supported them as the lesser of two evils. His present position is regarded as a powerful factor towards breaking the deadlock in the Council.

Plants Left Out.

The plan which will be adopted at the August meeting will leave out the plants of the Rosebrook Brewing Company, the Richmond Basket Works, the Virginia Packing Company and the Southern Stove Works, and restore a portion of the Garber property, all of which was left out under the Cannon-Pollock plan.

It is argued by Mr. Bottom and others have been standing for the Mills plan, that if the Locomotive Works and the Cedar Works should not be brought in, there is no more reason to include the four manufacturing plants mentioned above. The Dooley property and River view Cemetery, along the Rosebrook Road to the Seaboard Air Line Railroad; hence down the Seaboard Air Line tracks to a point opposite the northwest corner of the Fair Grounds. The line then goes back to the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac tracks, following practically the line to Howard's Grove, taking this in, along with Oakwood Cemetery and half of the Garber property, as heretofore told.

The advocates of annexation are in fine feather over the prospects of their success.

ELECTRIC TRAIN WRECKED; 23 DEAD

Frightful Accident on English Railway—Women and Children Killed.

LIVERPOOL, July 27.—An electric express train on the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railroad, bound from Liverpool to Southport, collided this evening with an empty stationary train at the Hull Road Station, causing the death of twenty-three persons and the injury of many.
The first car of the express, which was crowded, was smashed to pieces, and only six of its occupants escaped. The road was recently given an electric equipment.

This is the first serious accident that has occurred on an electric railway in England. The collision lifted the first car of the express completely off the unfortunate passengers, twenty of whom were killed outright. More of them would have been killed but for the presence of mind of a Liverpool architect, who, seeing that a collision was inevitable, shouted to his fellow passengers to throw themselves upon the floor of the car. Almost immediately after the crash the wreckage burst into flames.

The victims included several women and children. Fortunately the badly injured number comparatively few. The cause of the collision is unknown.

POLITICS AMONG THE HOWITZERS

Effort to Introduce a Resolution at Battery Smoker Fails.

CAPT. MYERS RULES IT OUT OF ORDER

Mr. S. S. P. Pattenon Proposes to Thank Others Than Senator Howitzers By War Department, and Exciting Episode Follows.

The reception and smoker tendered Senator Thomas S. Martin last night by the Richmond Howitzers was a delightful, informal social gathering until nearly 11 o'clock, when an incident occurred that suddenly converted merriment into feeling and threatened to develop into a sensation, if indeed, it did not approximate one.

The incident in question was the unsuccessful effort of Mr. S. S. P. Pattenon, a member of the Howitzers' Association, to offer a resolution thanking Governor Montague, Senator Daniel and others as well as Senator Martin, for their efforts in behalf of the Howitzers, which, though not read to the gathering, served to precipitate a heated situation, and to call forth an impassioned protest from Captain William M. Myers, who was presiding. The episode served to show what a white heat of passion is smoldering beneath the placid surface in the heated political campaign for the primary nomination for United States senator. Mr. Pattenon's resolution was carefully drawn and extending the thanks of the Howitzers to "ex-Governor Tyler, Senators John W. Daniel and Thomas S. Martin, Governor A. J. Montague, Hon. H. St. George Tucker, Hon.

John Lamb, Hon. William A. Jones and Leigh Robinson, Esq., but as it never got beyond the gathering this fact was not generally known.

Purely Social Occasion.

Captain Myers explained that this was purely a social occasion and not a business meeting of the battery, and suggested that resolutions were not in order.
Mr. William L. White, an old war-time Howitzer, endorsed Captain Myers in his view of the matter, and in doing so gave the first public intimation of the nature of the resolution, when he declared that it "was worse than an intrusion to foist upon this meeting any such resolution."

"As chairman of this meeting, I do not care for this thing to go any further," said Captain Myers. He explained that if any gentleman had any business to bring before the battery he might do so at a regular business meeting, and it would be considered and acted on.

At this point Mr. Charles E. Wingo, a gallant war member of the Howitzers, arose and deprecated the turn affairs had taken. "I do not want this to go out as a political meeting or one boosting any candidate," said he. He then explained that the resolution was merely one including in an expression of thanks Senator Daniel, Governor Montague and others, who had, like Senator Martin, aided in securing for the Howitzers the assurance of a new battery of modern guns, and expressed the hope that the resolution was merely one in the line of fairness the resolution would be heard and considered.

The Captain Warms Up.

Captain Myers was aroused by the reference to politics, and retorted in words the enunciation of which showed that he was making a great effort at self control. "At any meeting of this battery," he said, "the resolution will be considered, but this is purely a social affair, at which there are many visitors, and I consider it out of place here. If the view of the matter is mentioned in this meeting, it will be mentioned by me, and then by the brother on my right," gesturing in the direction of Mr. Wingo. Continuing, Mr. Myers grew more impassioned as he spoke, and in tones almost tremulous with feeling he denied that he had introduced politics into the meeting and defended himself with great vigor and fire against any such imputation.

"I do not want to thank a man for bringing this matter into this organization, I would say that before calling this meeting I consulted ex-members of the battery, and they thought we should present to Senator Martin this expression. In my opinion, the first time you get a chance after the service is rendered, I am sorry that any man, even though he be a friend of mine, should come here to a social gathering and exercise such bad taste and so violate the etiquette of the battery."

"To you men who have been fit to bring this matter into this organization, I would say that before calling this meeting I consulted ex-members of the bat-

battery."

A mild case of yellow fever was re-

GROSS FRAUDS ALLEGED

Society Declared in Petition to Be Insolvent—Meeting of Directors.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, July 27.—In the form of an amended complaint to a bill filed last April, suit was begun to-day in the United States Circuit Court for the Southern New York District to throw the entire $421,000 assets of the Equitable Life Assurance Society into the hands of receivers, who shall "take possession of all the funds, assets and property held by the defendant society of every character and description and administer the same as they may be directed by the court."

More than forty policyholders in the Equitable, representing a dozen different States, are included as complainants in the present suit, which is based in part upon the allegation that the society has no funds with which to meet its enormous losses and is insolvent.

J. S. Williams in Suit.

With J. Wilcox Brown, of Maryland, the holder of a $25,000 policy, as complainant, papers were filed last April to compel a distribution of the $421,000 surplus fund of the society, to compel the management to make an accounting to the policyholders and for the appointment of receivers for the surplus fund, pending judicial ascertainment of the rights of the policyholders thereto.

Since the filing of that bill, permission was obtained to file an amended complaint. Since the original bill was filed, forty-four other policyholders have intervened in the suit. Intervening petitions were filed last Wednesday. These,

Young Herring, Friend and Companion, Held For the Killing.

BUT LATTER DENIES THAT HE FIRED SHOT

Says Ahern Took Pistol From His Pocket and Tried to Shoot Him Before Killing Himself.

LOVE OF YOUNG GIRL MAY HAVE BEEN CAUSE

Herring Wanted Her to Marry Him and Sent Ahern for the License, While the Woman Was Given Money to Get Preacher—Both Men Drinking.

Charles Ahern, forty-eight years of age, who resided with his sister, Mrs. E.
P. Hancock, at No. 1400 Floyd Avenue, was shot and instantly killed yesterday afternoon about 5:40 o'clock while on Broad Street car No. 429 of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company.

John H. Herring, linehamen in the employ of the company, with whom the dead man had associated during the day, is in a cell at the Second Police Station, charged with the murder.

The two men boarded the car near Laurel and Broad Streets, apparently friends. When the car had reached the nineteen hundred square, two shots in rapid succession were heard, and Ahern fell on the seat with a bullet in his brain.

Conductor C. A. Clark, in charge of the car, made the statement that Herring fired the shot that killed Ahern, and that after firing he attempted to end his life with the revolver, but was prevented by the paid falling to fire.

In his cell last night Herring positively denied that he had done the shooting and claimed that Ahern had shot himself after trying to murder him.

Shot While on Car.
Briefly, these are the facts obtainable about the death of Mr. Ahern and the arrest of Herring upon the charge of murder. An inquest will be held this morning at 9:30 o'clock, when it is expected that much additional evidence will be produced that will throw light on the matter. Coroner Taylor viewed the body of Mr. Ahern last night and made an examination of the wound that caused death. The ball was from a thirty-eight calibre revolver and entered back of the right ear and crashed through the brain on an almost direct line to the left side of the head. Death was instantaneous.

From West Broad Street the car was run down to Hancock and switched to the tracks of the Clay Street line, and the corpse and the prisoner taken to Hancock and Clay, where the car was sidetracked. It was here that Dr.
Taylor made the examination and ordered the inquest to be held this morning. At Smith and Clay, the car stopped and the corpse was taken to the Second Station, where the prisoner was placed into the house and searched and taken to a cell.

Later the body was taken to Cain's understanding establishment, No. 400 West Broad Street, where it is at present, and where the coroner's jury will view it this morning.

Had Quarreled About Girl.

Both men were drinking at the time of the shooting, and it was said that they had been in some difficulty in the early part of the afternoon. This could not be verified, but it was learned that Herring had purchased the revolver yesterday afternoon, and that he had been to a certain house about 4 o'clock or possibly a little earlier and had some heated words with Ahern.

Herring, it seems, wanted to marry a girl named Marguerite Hullan, and gave his friend, Ahern, $1.25 to secure the license. He then gave the woman $5 to get the preacher. Ahern went out for a few minutes and returned with an old revenue license he had procured in a saloon. The woman did
